	Position Title: Application/Web Developer III
Job Summary:	• NARTech, Inc., a CMMI-Dev Level 5 company, seeks an Application/Web Developer III to join our company to support a long-term IT support services contract with a U.S. Federal Government client agency in Washington, DC. • We seek a dynamic, talented Senior-level Application/Web Developer with Microsoft.NET expertise ready for a challenge where teamwork, technical ability, client interaction, and problem-solving skills are essential.
Experience:	• Ten (10+) years of industry-related experience. • Eight (8+) years of experience supporting full System Development Lifecycle (SDLC) environments using the following tools: Microsoft .NET Framework, Visual Studio, HTML 5, CSS, JSON, XML, and SQL Server. • Require experience with Git, DevOps, MS Azure, AWS cloud, Microsoft.net Maui and Xamarin for mobile applications. • Knowledge of Artificial Intelligence (AI) tools, such as Microsoft Copilot and other AI principles, methods, and tools used to design systems that perform and apply human-like intelligence functions such as neural networks, deep learning, natural language processing, robotics, and image recognition.
Education:	• B.S. Degree in Computer Science or in a relevant field is preferred. • Microsoft Certified Solutions Developer (MCSD) App Builder or equivalent certification/training is required. • Continuing Education (CE) credits are required during contract performance.
Security Clearance:	• U.S. Citizenship or Permanent Residence status is required. • The candidate must also be able to clear background checks and a U.S. Government Public Trust level of Security Clearance.
Location:	• Remote work is allowed for this position. Some travel may be required to the Federal client agency office in Washington, DC, and to the NARTech office in Bethesda (Maryland) on an as-needed basis.
Responsibilities:	• Design, code, modify, and support web applications, from layout to function and according to a client's specifications. • Independently create new schemas and style sheets. • Review, modify, and enhance existing schemas and style sheets. • Develop, implement, and maintain Internet/intranet web and multimedia applications. • Create visually appealing sites that feature user-friendly design and clear navigation. • Integrate applications with database architecture, develop server scripts, and establish connectivity with network systems, search engines, and information servers. • Utilize Git-based processes and commands for source control in DevOps, cloud-hosted resources like SQL servers, web app servers in Azure and AWS, and Microsoft.net Maui and Xamarin for mobile applications. • Actively participate in team meetings. • Troubleshoot development and production problems, and support documentation. • Perform complex analysis, design, and development tasks independently with minimal direction and guidance. • Provide direction and guidance to less experienced application developers as required.
Salary Range:	• $ 110K-$120K Annual Salary with Benefits • Option available for straight hourly full-time employment without benefits
Benefits Package Includes:	• Health, Dental, and Vision Insurance, 401K plan with Company Match, Vacation and Sick Leave, Paid Holidays, Long-Term and Short-Term Disability, Professional Development, and Annual Bonus opportunities.